

Making a small world 'snow whale' or 'Lost and found' play land.

Get a large bowl/tub/ water tray and fill it up with cold water:

Add some ice if you have some:

Now, find some toys to add to the water:

For lost and found- a boy, a penguin a boat

For the Storm Whale in Winter- a boat, a whale, and a boy character (if you don't have a boy or penguin you could substitute with a cork, boats can be substituted with plastic food trays):

.....if you don't fancy getting wet and cold, you could try making a dry version:
