Grammar Focus

Use these words to help write sentences with a focus on our history and English topic. They could be used to write creative expanded noun phrases that describe characters from stories that include knights (such as George and the Dragon or King Arthur and his Knights) or our subject of the Normans in history.

Maths – Both groups continue to practice times tables up to 12

Mr Perry's Group

You should complete the mathletics assigned that help recall your knowledge from a subject before Christmas – Long addition and Long subtraction.

As a one off I have included a link in the homework section of the class blogs of some questions to help you to practice our work this week on short division. That is 3 numbers divided by 1 with no remainders. Please complete in your homework books.

Mrs Jeffreys group.

Mrs Jeffrey will put a few problem solving excercises on Mathletics and also wishes you to complete the short division work on google classroom and on the blog.
