School Policy Statement on Equality and Community Cohesion

Our School is committed to equality both as an employer and a service-provider:

- We try to ensure that everyone is treated fairly and with respect
- We want to make sure that our school is a safe, secure and stimulating place for everyone
- We recognise that people have different needs, and we understand that treating people equally does not always involve treating them all exactly the same
- We recognise that for some pupils extra support is needed to help them to achieve and be successful
- We try to make sure that people from different groups are consulted and involved in our decisions, for example through talking to pupils and parents/carers, and through our School Council
- We aim to make sure that no-one experiences harassment, less favourable treatment or discrimination because of their age; any disability they may have, their ethnicity, colour or national origin; their gender; their gender identity or reassignment; their marital or civil partnership status; being pregnant or having recently had a baby; their religion or beliefs; their sexual identity and orientation.

We welcome our general duty under the Equality Act 2010 to eliminate discrimination, to advance equality of opportunity and to foster good relations. We readily embrace our specific duties to publish information every year about our school population; to explain how we have due regard for equality; and to publish equality objectives which show how we plan to tackle particular inequalities, and reduce or remove them.

For our pupils, we also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.

We welcome the emphasis in the Ofsted inspection framework on the importance of narrowing gaps in achievement, which affect, amongst others:

- pupils from certain cultural and ethnic backgrounds
- pupils who belong to low-income households and pupils known to be eligible for free school meals
- pupils who are disabled
- pupils who have special educational needs
- boys and girls in certain subjects.

The Equality Act 2010 requires us to publish information that demonstrates that we have due regard for the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Equality Act 2010
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

We are already developing strategies and interventions to tackle some of these concerns.

For some of these issues we have also set and published equality objectives. Details of these are in Part 6 of this document.

- Creating a climate of understanding and acceptance by all pupils of those with differences – special educational needs, emotional needs, range of backgrounds and family circumstances and ensuring positive representations throughout the school
- Achievement for disadvantaged pupils from low income families
- Training for staff and governors on Equality and Diversity
- Addressing gender bias in books and curriculum, assemblies and performance
- Recognising the Everyone Invited debate and addressing any signs of gender related harassment
- Helping to combat negative attitudes towards sexual orientations
- Ensuring any bullying incidences are dealt with promptly and in line with the school's anti-bullying policy
- Ensuring any racist incidences are dealt with promptly, following appropriate procedures and with re-education at its core
- Providing for pupils adversely affected by Covid-19 and requiring catch up and/or social or emotional support

Part 3: How we have due Regard for Equality

The information provided here aims to show that we give careful consideration to equality issues in everything that we do.

Schools are required to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2010.

The information below is a summary of how we are aware of this particular requirement and how we respond to it.

- We are aware of the requirement of the Equality Act 2010 that it is unlawful to discriminate, treat some people less fairly or put them at a disadvantage
- We aim to provide training for our governors on the Equality Act 2010. When governors consider equality issues in relation to policies, decisions and services, a record of this is kept in the minutes and papers of governing body meetings.
- We aim to keep an accurate record, when possible and appropriate, of the protected characteristics of our pupils and employees
- We have a school behaviour policy that treats all children fairly and takes into account their many differences, including culture, ethnicity and ability
- We deal promptly and effectively with all incidents and complaints of racism, bullying and harassment that may include cyber-bullying and prejudice-based bullying related to disability or special educational need, ethnicity and race, gender, gender reassignment, pregnancy or maternity, religion and belief and sexual orientation. We keep a record of all such incidents and notify those affected of what action we have taken. We provide training to all staff in relation to dealing with racism, bullying and harassment incidents
- We have a special educational needs policy that outlines the provision the school makes for pupils with special educational needs
- We have an accessibility plan that supports all members of our school community to reach their potential through full access to all areas of school life
- Our admission arrangements are those set out by the governing body, giving priority to pupils with special educational needs and those in care
- Our complaints procedure sets out how we deal with any complaints relating to the school
- We aim to observe and implement the principles of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in our employment practices
- We have procedures for addressing staff discipline, conduct and grievances
- We have a staff code of conduct that states clearly that discrimination or prejudices of any kind will not be tolerated
