

Spelling Rule:

This week, we would like you to look at words that end in the suffix –cian which sounds like ‘shun’.

We use the suffix ‘cian’ when we want to change the noun (root word) into a profession For example music – musician and beauty – beautician

We have also included some common exception words as well.

1	Beautician	Green: Just learn the green words and write them into 5 sentences. Yellow: Learn the green and yellow words and write them into 5 sentences. Blue: Learn all the words and write them into 5 sentences. Remember you may need to look some of these words up in a dictionary so that you know what they mean for your sentences!
2	Magician

Spellings:

Write each of your spellings four times in your book. Be mindful that you need to keep revising these spellings throughout the week. Doodle spell four of your spellings!

Grammar Focus

This week we would like you to use fronted adverbials in your sentences. Remember to vary your adverbials to include time, place, manner and frequency.

For example:

Just before lunch, the beautician was feeling ravenous.

On the wooden stage, the musician played his piano.

Every month, the marvellous magician performed on the stage.
